TRILANTIC sets out EU Data Protection Rules

The EU Data Protection Rules - Directive 95/46/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council - On the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data to give its snappy full name - are the usual bureaucrats' quagmire, giving the impression that their primary purpose is to provide job opportunities for Belgian civil servants.

Whatever we may think of them, we cannot avoid them, and those who work in this area must tread carefully. A thank-you, therefore, to TRILANTIC who have summarised them all, with links to each country from a clickable map, and to the text of the relevant Articles. They prudently accompany it with a Disclaimer.
