Citytech Anglo American legal IT club: 002

Citytech's second Anglo American legal IT club was held on Friday 7th April. Many confessed to feeling a bit guilty for sloping out of the office at 3pm but a few slurps of Moët soon put their worries to rest.

We had one 'token' American this time, a chap called Alan Ryan from IPRO Tech (litigation software). Alan was over visiting Legal Link, Hobs Legal and Trilantic. Well done to Nigel Murray from Trilantic for bringing him along.
