Trilantic Third Thursday party at Jamaica Inn

→Nigel Murray, Managing Director of Trilantic runs a regular Third Thursday drinks in the City which are always fun. Strictly for the litigation crowd, he attracts lawyers and litigation support friends who come along to hook up with chums, meet new faces and share a jar or two of fine ale complimented by some delicious bar food. On good form last Thursday the throng were chatting and laughing and as you can see in the photo above, Bill Onwusah from Lovells was in the thick of the sausage jokes. □
